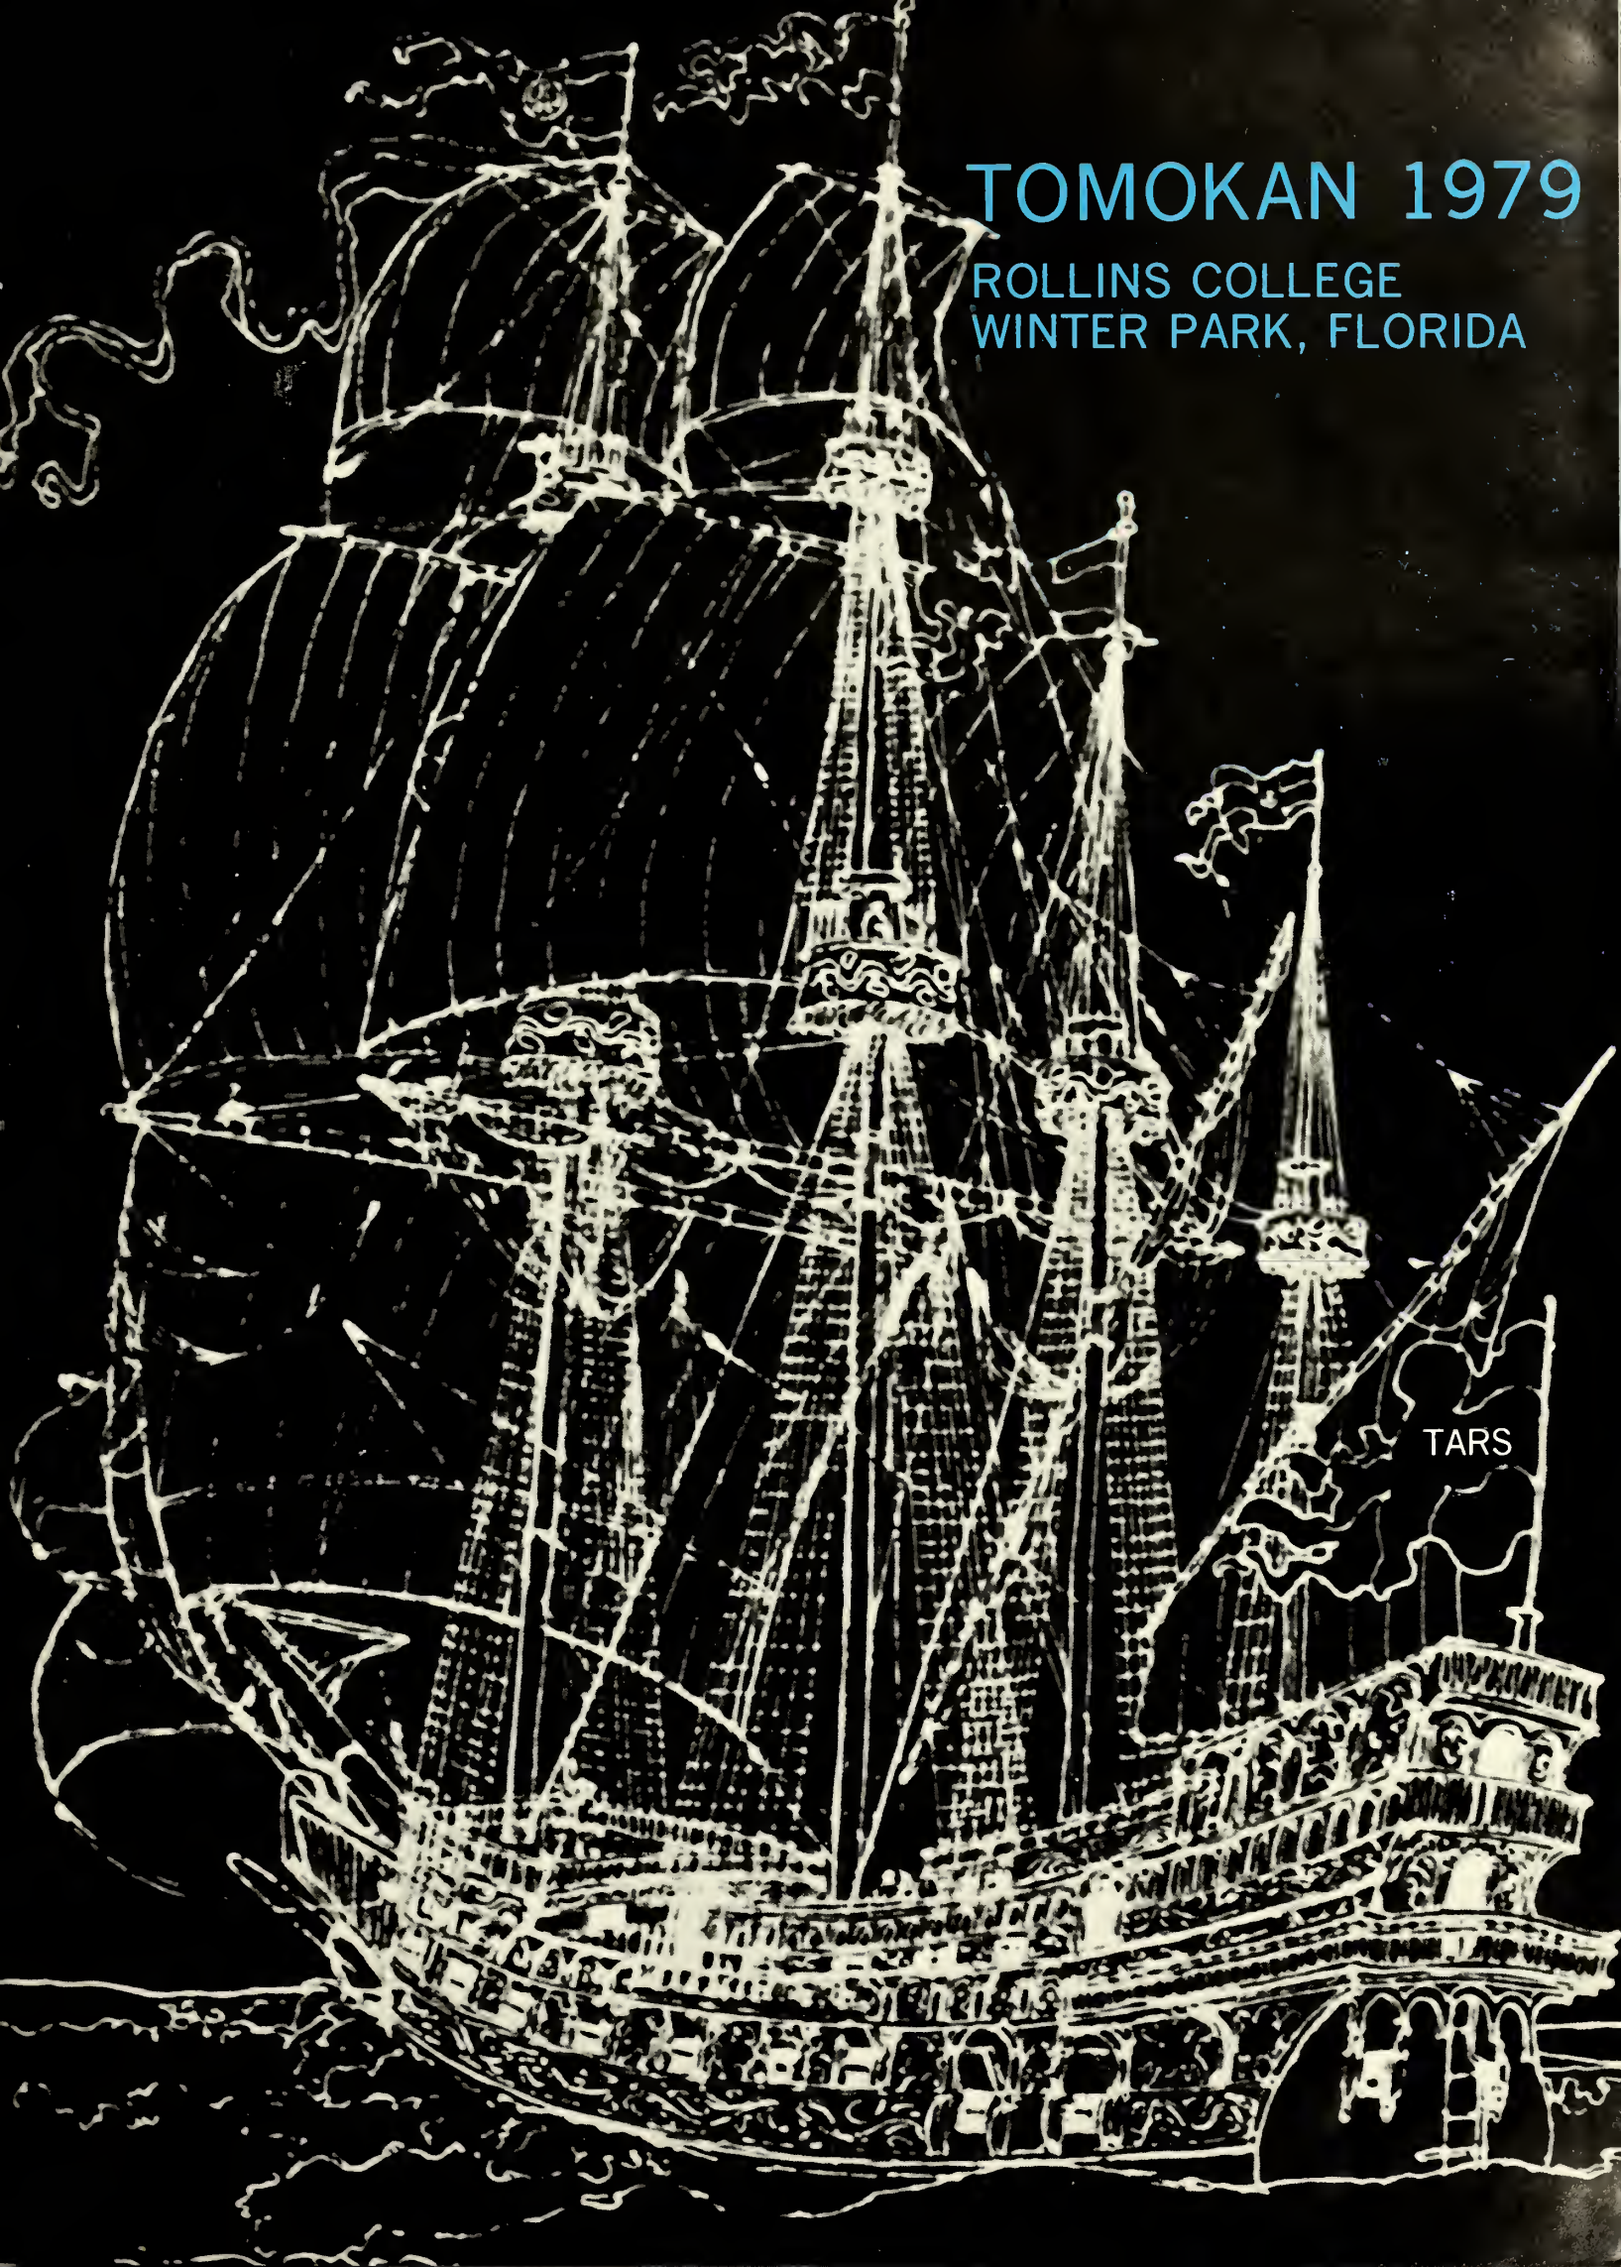
TOMOKAN 1979

ROLLINS COLLEGE
WINTER PARK, FLORIDA



The introduction picture symbolizes the early meaning of our nickname "Tars" It was first brought to the campus during the war when the navy stationed a training vessel on Lake Virginia off the shores of Rollins. At that time, there were only ten men enrolled here because the rest had been drawn to the battlefields. Consequently, the girls on campus showed a great deal of interest in the sailors on the nearby ship — nicknaming them "Tars", which was an old sailing term. Once the war ended, the male students returned to Rollins and the nickname survived.

CHI O

Ring!! Ring!!
"Yes, Roger Campbell, please."
"Hi, Roger, this is Tom Wells speaking. You know that tap you had me install in the Chi-O living room phone to find out why it's such a mess all the time? Well, I just played the tape and you wouldn't believe what I found out. I must have tuned into a party and God ... this is incredible!!!

The sophomores seem to be the tamest of the lot ... TAMMY W. got alot of toys for her birthday and seems to be getting 'good vibes' from them ... K-Twas last seen practicing yet another one of her speeches, this one on voyeurism, with the aid of peeping Tom ... OUI looks like she stuck her finger in a socket, but gets more of a shock from 'love and tongue' ... KELLY K. just dashed out — it's 3AM and the phone's ringing off the wall ... LORI K. was discovered CROUCHing in the closet ... RAMONA has been practicing her goosestep lately, after her Xmas formal date with HITLER ... PATTY was seen hanging from the ceiling, Scott's been driving her up the wall lately ... KELLY MAC. was seen fooling around with Mike's putter, hoping to get a hole in one ... JANET couldn't STANd up so she took pictures all night at the formal ... BARB'S frisbees sure fly high, but then so does she ... JOANNE'S attendance seems to be on the WAYNE ... VAL just marched out the door saying you can tune a piano, but you can't tune a fish?! ... SHARON was indicted for selling bad Danskin stock, but she piled innocent ...

Now, at the other end of the spectrum — the Wildest — the Juniors ... At 2:15, the "I" crowd rolls in ... After the 12 days of Xmas, JENNIFER recovered from bongchitis thanks to her 'cute boy' ... What's with MARTHA lately? all she does is mutter, "that must be Phil Lutz in that boat!". It must have been a shattering experience ... TAMMY H. continues to amaze us with all night bourbon marathons with HERR-MAN ... LESLIE just came in with her latest sperm of the moment plan ... TERESA finally paid her dues. Wonder what little deal she pulled to finance it? It was such a 'high' price! ..- JULIE and JM have been busy organizing activities for the C.O.V.C. What? no takers?! ... WYNDI got drummed out of the C.O.V.C. — wonder what was the MATTer? ... ASHLEY is still trying to heal her two Boo-Boo's ... AJ had a 'hair raising' experience when she forgot to put the busy end down ... ADRIANE was awarded an Oscar for her disappearing tuna act ... LORI's had stars in her eyes of late — wonder who her leading man is? ... Some guy tried to seduce COLLEENERS but she said, "Not tonight, I've got a headache" ... JANA's on a new exercise kick — she runs the bases all night long ... O'B developed a new method because she's so shy around guys ... ANNE MARIE is sitting in the corner devouring BASS with wine sauce ... TERRY has been putting her money where her mouth is lately — Colgate did the trick ...

The Seniors, as always, are putting the icing on the cake ... Listen to this ... SHEILA must have a new LEEd on life — is that where happy feet get you? ... DOC ALLEN, spent the Hawaiian vacation going in and out ... Is ANNE S. training for the Boston marathon or running off her last meal? ... You can find the little Dipperon SARY's back, and the BIG ONE in Tampa ... FLEA's been scoring on and off the court. Her secret? She eats everything with TOMato sauce ... ADAM up — STUed tomatoes and SCOTTch on the rocks and you've got COLLEEN'S remedy for senioritis ...

"Well, that about does it, Roger, what do you think?"
#$%@!!&&¢
"Yeah, Rog, I know you're upset and I agree they ought to be punished, but don't you think mass radical masectomies are a little stiff?!!!"

SPECIAL ALERT TO THE PLEDGES: You're our only hope!!!

THETA

A man from Wabash writes, "Dear Roseann Roseannadana . . . How is it that the Thetas are the wildest and craziest girls on campus?" So I says to 'em, I says, Mr. Seymour, we've got one Priscilla, well lets just say we may be convinced that it was "nothing" but only her Sealey Posture Pedic knows for sure. And then there's Nancy who definately enjoys playing the Field but who knows about Vicki, she says she has more Fond-Doing-It! And of course there's Martha, the one with the 15 year subscription to Bride's Magazine . . . Well Mr. Seymour, I feel sorry for that poor girl, 'cause where I come from 15 years is a lifetime!' Don't miss that catchy tune, over hill over Dale, but will Mr. X set Bonny's sail? And what about the men who know, for they all call our resident partier Carolyn, "Flash"? And what about Peggy, who seems to be the authority on admissions and X-its. I don't know what you think Mr. Seymour, but I feel ther are some Czechoslovakians amongst us . . . Well hellooo Molly . . . you know, the one who doesn't keep us in sus-SPENCER as she willingly tells us all about those American men with their large American "biceps". And we can't forget Lulu, that wild rallier in a toga who's saving herself for Belushi . . . please no . . . please yes says Maria who's been BRANDed French style by Harry but refuses to tell about the hell raising on her scaffold! (We know it wasn't Diet Pepsi then.) And who can forget that anonymous Theta, Julie, who only the treasurer knows. I'll tell you one thing Mr. Seymour, she sure keeps her men puzzled. And have you seen our own Betsy Peacock who keeps getting her feathers BURNed, and I don't mean scorched. (Whoaa!) So Deidre, how's it feel to have struck oil under the mistletoe in Tel Aviv? And we know Tracy Pickett wasn't happy with just the ring, she had to have Billy's "utensils", and I'm not talking soupbowls either. (chuckle, chuckle) And Kim Paul, how about explaining those "Leeks" in te treasury. Can anyone explain why Anne's spending so much time baking? . . . She sure has been warming up an awful lot of stouffers in her oven. Can anyone forget how apHALLed Kim was when we thought she'd be more under-STANding . . . A penny for your thoughts Kim. Naturally Iris has kept us all guessing. She cheezed it with Ted but serves alot better with Dunlop. And we've all heard about Terry Williams. Good ol' Ter-bob has it in for small furry creatures but what's his name again, Max or Billy? Whatever turns you on! How could we forget Imke? We all know about Rick but what's the story with Eddie and Emmett? Must be a real kick in the grass! And Tina, you know, the one who left Ollie and us last December, or was it Rusty?

Well, Mr. Seymour, I want to tell you now clearly that the juniors have been just as "uninhibited". First we have Fay who keeps her shape not from working out in the Jim but from discoing in the Halsey — hey, I thought she played the Saxton-phone. From behind Boone's closed door, you know what they say about that, we hear, "Come in, Kammien". We also have the athletic type like Steph who's playing at the Fields when she's not working out at Nautilus and Lesley who plays GAMes WEEL but not under a full Moon. Diana was ADAMent about getting At-tool back, but Susan only Kehres about FTU men. Barb's MAD-igan but who knows when she'll cool off. Leslie's a true Longhorn and he won't Leiber alone. I'm still trying to find out if Scott's putter is up to Val's par — you know those New Jersey women. Tracy has been tending bar in her swinging bachelorette pad and Kathy ain't whistling Dixie no more (that's funny?) Ellie's fickle finger of fate was Lassiter.

Now Mr. Seymour as if this report hasn't been enough to make you appreciate these fine warm young girls already, we must tell you about the sophomores a little. Claudia has been busy with trips to New England and we know they aren't just for the snow! And of course I'm sure you want to know just as much as we do from Christy if she has met her Colling and from Patti T. — how is New Smyrna at 8:00 in the morning. Have you met Tricia, Mr. Seymour? Well let me tell you she's got to be the cutest thing going . . . she looks just like me — Roseanne! Candy can't cope with Raymond but Sharon is sure Coping with her Texan roommates. We know Tracey studies alot but is it the books or Vogue, trend setter? Suzy has a real sweet-tooth — she goes all the way to California to get Bosco!! Marie is scanning the horizons to fill her single room while Lois is handling her ordal (ordeal?) Well, and that reminds me of Hunter . . . seems she had an open season on Bob Whites and ended up replacing a mirror.

But Mr. Seymour, let me tell you, that I, Roseann Roseannadanna know that these Thetas are definitely a wild and crazy bunch to be proud of. Oh, excuse me, before I forget, you better look out because there are 30 pledges in training to keep up the tradition. So, like I was saying Mr. Seymour, it just goes to thow that there's always something . . . it's like the time I was . . .

KAPPA

As usual, Kappas came out on top and had another successful and momentous year. Mardi, our house manager loves ice cream with NUTZ on top while Ginger was flying high over Brazilian WATERS. Our loyal president, Ann, has managed to keep in shape with low-CAL and exercise ... Cate ... are Chi Psi mattresses softer than Kappa's? We've missed you up on the 4th floor. Tish, our local redhead, adorned in purple rollers and bibler, took a trip to a mystery-land ... was it grand and what can we say about Cindy Lou Martini Grant ... after breaking glasses and the fire hoses and keeping the Kappas on their toes ... you deserve a PAT on the back. Karyn rallied at the X-mas formal as Miss Photogenic. She was in every damn picture! Just who was your date, Juck? We heard Sally scored her goal, x-MARKS the spot. Hey Joanne, you must have kept the boys well-fed ... we saw a few sneak out in the a.m. — Remember RED! Diane — even if you are a midget ... your lusts for JIM and TIM have not been small. Barbie grew her nails for JOHN ... does that mean a ring is next? Sue — why do you have to type loudly so late at night? What could you possibly be doing ... with all the rent money Lizzie could collect on her room, she and GUY could extend their Harpers budget several drinks. Mary Jones overdosed on Ranch House dressing and was found in her room with a loaded B.M.W. pounding at her door ... Hey M.G. ... champagne makes you feel alright ... is the Phi Delt toilet as comfortable as a bed. Dolly gets the Hick-ups when out to lunch and Huge picks up the bill because he's so RICH ... The SCOOP on Vicki ... she was found playing cops and robbers between Antoinette Ave. and the Lambda house. Jane ... the "berg" got blasted by the CANNON but managed to keep our checkbook sturdy. Mudgie ... you were really social but only in HOLLAND and Jan ... you've managed to gossip your way to CINCINATTI and back. After a short Pablo cruise ... Poppins finally docked at Royal arms. "Let me tell you this" ... Chi, SPONGES aren't the only thing you can wash with. Mindy ... we're glad to see EDDIE still STANS up to your other beaus ... we've missed you. Poor Robin — when she opened the Kappa invitation and saw "with dates" she instantly had an epileptic seisure. Kate decked the HAUS with WILLY a bit before Christmas and Sue J. ... have you moved back from 3rd floor K.A. yet. Hey Lois, Tampa is more than just Grandpa ... it's time to mend Rugby shorts instead of Cuban pants. We heard Claudia fouled out when she benched her blind date. Suzie ... you really O.D'd off the courts while Wheels was determined to make her last year at Rollins FAB-ulous. Mary R. ... we hope Johnny will clean up after you. Can you see Tish at a topless bar with some of her little Phi Delt friends flashing her trenchcoat. Monica got WISE and decided not to leave us after all. As for the Australian girls ... Duckying the age limit, Becky flew back from Tasmania courtesy of famous Australian "Too-Up". And had a wild and rickless time. Many a day was spent touring the waters down south on young-rickity sailboats ... exploring all types of fun sea-life. Practicing to be a pool-shark ... Kathy always felt like a schooner of Toohey's ... or two ... or three. While over in Ireland, sustained by Irish Coffees, Sally managed to call on every pub, acquiring any souvenir. She was found of all her Irish fathers ... whether in the cloth or kitchen Rene, we heard you were the grandest Pub caller and could even be found in the hull of a fishing schooner trying effortlessly to toss down a cup of tea. Elizabeth had an extremely unforgettable Thanksgiving in Ireland. It all started with a "jar" at 10:00 am ... remember when and where it all passed away??? Terri was often seen strolling down Grafton Street with a chocolate sweet in hand while she checked out all the Mickies and John Thonias'!!! and Scuppy and Sheila we heard you went streaking through all the nightclubs of Dublin with your jolly pilot buddies — a great old crack they had.

To the seniors we wish Good Luck and to our pledges, we welcome you to Kappa Kappa Gamma. Give us whiskey, gin or rye, we'll be KAPPAS till we tie.

Non Compis Mentis — adjectives: insanity, of unsound mind, dazed and confused, lose one's head, take leave of one's senses . . . Shattered!

Roget's Thesauras

1978 was an innorative year — we welcomed a new consultant and cohert in crime, C. LaRue Boyd who thought he could entertain us with his Tiffin and Prince stuffing operation.

Our 1st leader and head hoorer stumbled and made her rounds repeatedly saying "I'm NOT drunk," and then cried Wolfe in a wrestling match with our Christmas tree. We are especially proud of our President's devotion to that man on the hill. Our prim and proper English Noocum, Jody, was lost and found snatching ties and dancing on tabletops — the straightest one of the bunch. Hey, how's the red headed boy? Karen, our 2nd leader, has had a FABulous year with a few RUSTY edges. Often swayed by her punk rock roommate with Candie shoes, she collected a few seahorses from the Mercury Marina. The eccentric Sandy stayed extra clean with "Mr. Bubble" and Don Peringion; our wild and crazy chec.

Mindy's adventures included roaring in the twenties, flying in the seventies, crashing at Mary's, and finding a Gene lamp. Mary (alias Boob) had many encounters with a Belushi prototype, and a bottle of Jack Daniels, but still continues to plan the best parties this year. There's a wild tropical bird flying high — last seen enroute somewhere between 4th floor and the KA house. Laura has been known to focus in and out of situations, but comes down to earth for Parkie or senseless. We would all like to "recognize" Whitney: for her grand entrance at our recovery party, her frequent "foot in mouth dilemmas," and her P. Wrat magic.

For all you kiddies who missed "Mr. Roger's Shaw" — so did our tory. Carol made her MARK at Rollins and we are sad to see her leave for that chapel on the hill. DeDe, our Cohead of the Rush, was an ALDENary wild and crazy girl. Rhonda SHEFFIELD through the crowd, dropped in at East India, and subtlery checked in and out of her room on the 4th floor. We saw way too much of Laura's Cummings and goings, but will give her away to a NON-Rollins Man. And last but not least — we remember our friends who galavanted to those countries overseas, only to revive more NCM spirit — Noel Sloan, Marcia, Pam, and Laura. Thank-you.
And to the first and finest little hoovers — we know you can keep up the NCM tradition.

GO FOR IT!

On the behalf of the greatest sorority, the Phi Mu sorority that is, Ronoh wills to . . . Lynn: One chanting, magic carpet to levitate when you've got some "gaining" to do . . . om, om. Kim: One crash course in basketball so that she can handle all the "courting." Trudy: A "hot" line direct to Maine, a year's supply of "Zels and Yons" and a portable vacuum cleaner for the T.A. Sherri: One glass of juicy juice and a digital scale; a law school, a law book, and a lawyer — not necessarily in that order. Barb: A new bible, a shorter jumprope so that it won't hit the floor, and an endless vacation in the Swiss Alps, naturally, of course, with baby blue eyes. Max: A permanent and neatly printed invitation to walk into anyone's room at any time and a BATMOBILE . . . da-da-da-da-da-da-da-DA-DA! Beth Lake: A studio where she can give lessons in music and how to operate "machines." Carol: A gift certificate for a million free hours of assertiveness training, a new couch for the bathrobe sessions, a tape recorder for "the news", and a piece of burnt toast. Margie: Batteries for her calculator, a new excuse for the missing shoes and a king sized brass headboard. Patty: An all-costs paid taxicab with direct service to the house. Joy: A package of frozen brownies and 633 frozen ham biscuits. Beth P.: A hundred new varieties of tea and a "duster" to clean them off. Celeste: A year's supply of quarters for Tab and a case of Lite beer. Kathy: Courage to perform in the pub and a new dance to do now that she's out of the light booth. Tina: Projects for her boundless energies and a can of Farrah Fawcett hairspray. Diana: A big sister who lives in the house and a loudspeaker. Debi: A robot to answer all her questions, and a year's supply of tickets to the Rocky Horror Picture Show. Raina: A new companion for Sunday morning at 7:30 a.m. and 100 airplane tickets to Harvard. Cindy: A black book to keep track of her dates and 50 autographed copies of Smith's album. Petra: A slang dictionary and ten tickets to visit Lynn next year. Dawn: An explanation of her whereabouts winter term and a personal secretary for all her typing (to be done on letterhead that reads "I'm so impressed with myself.") Susie: A toaster oven now that she has donated hers to the house, a new package of index cards so that she can finish her "tough" winter term course, and T.C.'s phone number next year.

CHI PSI

It hardly seems two years had passed since my last return, nevertheless, it was once again time to make my visit to THE HOUSE. Before I entered, however, I saw Red hanging from the third-floor balcony; half-cocked, half shaved, and hairless! In side, Kruegs was wondering what the scouts thought. Supposedly, Harold, the scout from Pittsburgh, thought he should use his screwball more often. Upstairs was Babs, who was spending another quiet night at home with Pebbles and Bam-Bam. Suddenly someone asked, "Where's the Phantom?" Tommy Downs knew that he was locked and bolted in his room. Next door we learned that B.J. had given up on the O.B. method to get the Swiss Miss a little closer to his cup. Meanwhile, Free Bird was dunking on and off the court, while Herbster listened at the door. By the way Dapper, the doorman at the Langford told us that she was 36-24-36 and thirty-six! Across the hall, inside the Kennel Club, Kevin was so content that he thought he was in the H'Evans. Further down the hall, Cocas was hungry, but the only late nite eating he's been doing is at I-Hop. Marky's been getting pretty big lately, he must be pumping something while Lil Sponge was pissed off that Sponge's roomate didn't come with the room.

I saw Camstra at the first base a few times this year, but never near home. Oh well, maybe next year. Shaffer stuck his neck way out for us this year, but on top of that, has he got any head? As I climbed up to the third floor, I passed Scoop limping down the stairs and I wasn't sure if it was his bad ankle or whether he was just Teetoring around. I saw Loops practicing his new sport, Goffing, and he plays alot better when he's drunk. In the ghetto, Peabs had decided that Foreign Relations was not his bag, but found the Classics more his speed. Roomate Stan has been playing Easter Bunny this year, hopping from hole to hole. What color eggs did he you girls? From the public balcony, we could see that Cisco had broken from his pattern to the Kappa House, only to get clipped at New Womens.

I descended to the first floor where I learned that B.K. was the proud father of a 7 pound 6 ounce baby kangaroo. Even more startling news was that Pat wears his collar up to look taller. I then greeted Mr. Flach, "Hey, Mr. Flach, how's your son doing?" "I don't know but that Quedo Muscara sure is high strung. I'm not sure what his racket is." Out the back door, Botts was hiding in the bushes. He asked me if I had seen Mardie. Before I could answer, Danny rushed by on his way to the field. We know he'll make it at third, but scoring in the clutch is what it is all about. Out in his new Trans Am, Nitro was having a few pops trying to teach Laura that poking means going out to dinner. J-Bird nasn't been around too much this year, but thats alright, he's been thoroughly engaged with something else. At the other end of the campus, Max was mature when Alpha Phis were in season. Over on Sandspur, Cal was hot on the line and it brought his juices to Boyle. His roommate, Pete, was also busy breaking plates over his head, but then that's what makes him wise.

As I reached the end of my tour, I saw the future faces to whom I could only say, "If you ain't a LAMBDA, you ain't s_____!"

Despite all the odds, the Dixie Boys have weathered another stormy battle on the snowy southern banks of Lake Virginia for yet another RISE, and as the chapel bell rings to stir another hangover we find ourselves with some strange girl strapped to the keg in the Lyman Asylum.

LEAPING was in the mood this year for rifle wallenda or whenever there was a shortage of china . . . Ted went to Rosie's and got mollested by an old flame and now it only itches now and then . . . we lost Wacky to those guys in white jackets and some GREASA LEASA, and whenever Parker isn't showing Laura his etchings he can be found window sculpting — Red guy Lupo spent most of his time in The BLENDER or Bantavolio in the chapter room and Gene had fallen asleep in the R & R EXPRESS and missed his stol, but we won't tell, Clay is gay — but there is hope, too bad, should have joined the coast guard but there's still time on LOVELY RITA'S meter . . . our village idiot Imhoof dropped out of school and Melissa and now he is looking for oil somewhere in Nasaa.

The fraternity is shakey enough — but we leave it in the hands of utter morons, and leading the disarrayed out of the smoke is torpedo Tex and his trustworthy sidekick, Mr. Bill and John, who is in some jail throwing punches while Allison is back here throwing anything but punches . . . Rick has locked himself in his room (too bad we thought the bed looked good on the roof) . . . Rick is still trying to shake whitney, or visa-versa . . . Metz discovered girls and now does two types of T . . . Duke snorts gravel and Dave grew a mustache just like Rhonda's, while Fred SPED to bed and aced the final . . . Raymond keeps batting around the candy to keep on the team and COSMOmatt got drunk and mistook his T.V. for a shotput — Suzanne doesn't mind how he gets his jollies . . . we gave Mike a flame proof door and Neal bought everyone skullcaps, and Jim and Steve came in with sick grins — but they're in the bathroom now creating new graFAYti.

And for the days of old, Andy put off graduating to sit on the couch — for soon he'll be sitting on a less comfortable alter.

As for the pledges, our blundering assortment of futile misfits (whom we will avoid mentioning) if the fraternity is going to soon be their's — YOU ARE IN TROUBLE . . . oh well, dog eat dog.

CHARITY . . .

ESTEEM . . .

AND LOVE.

On behalf of the entire Zeta-Phi Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon, I wish to extend sincere thanks to Mike Marlowe, Mr. Wells, Dr. Mulson, and the Order of Diana. Quite often, we appear to take for granted the contributions of our alumni, advisors, and Order of Diana. We want them to know, however, that their thoughtfulness has been appreciated.

Tau Kappa Epsilon celebrates the gifts of individual members, the addition of new members renews the whole fraternity. Even though this year's pledge class was small, I know Tony, Jordan, Spencer, and Thor will contribute significantly to this chapter's growth and development in the future.

The sophomores, lead by Father Hoak running around town every night, trying to establish communication with a higher authority, has still not found the way to break 80. Hello, Mr. Coliton, no matter how many gifts you shower upon the Little Sisters they will not give you favors in return, O.K. Gassy, in the character of his religious affiliation, has gotten into the business of selling gold plated jewelry at 14kt. gold prices. Haa! Haa!! Kotkin, take the barrel out from under your shirt. If Schmitty would stop blowing on his trombone so often he might be able to hear the voice of the way. Little RAK, contrary to popular belief is good for more than miss-cues, getting us on the base, and impersonating a plucked chicken. Do not let Stumpy fool you, he is really a Mafia hit man disguised as Hitler. Congratulations, Bill, I did not know it was that hard to get a 6.00. Chuck must have found the apple sweeter at Rollins that at Valencia. Rounding out this crew, Hairy Arms got a perm, Kurt is without a band, and Satch is still under surveillance.

The strength of this chapter is in our junior class, but odor is not everything. Mongo is learning life's lessons the hard way, but he cannot say that Howie did not warn him. Cupid's arrow has landed in between Dust's two big ones, or is it Dust's arrow has landed in between . . . We now have two Ochsman's in the fraternity, thanks to the eldest's generosity, but we are still not going to serve bagels instead of hot pretzels during Monday Night Football. Sandman has found the spotlight once again, with his walk through the Theta's fountain. Chester has found a new friend, Bess, her complexion is a little purple, but Chet always has his mouth on her. Troll must feel he has found enough security in the broadcasting business to support Sue; I hope she likes Buffet. Nelly severed an appendage, but it should not cramp his style in the sport he enjoys the most. Weeds has settled down this year, but he still occasionally graces us with shades of the old Weedling we once knew. Embryo has become a member of the working class and jumps for a beeper now, instead of females. Steve's believed future brother-in-law must be running-up quite a telephone bill from Washington, D.C. to Florida. The Professor has taken-up residence on the lakefront this year. What is Beverly afraid of? It must be alive! Fetus, after leaving our humble abode, has become the Phantom Teke. Crazy Leo, after striking out twice, has decided to take his frustrations out on the Vero fish with a 22. Wouldn't you know, just when we got someone who could have fulfilled the Gay Boy's desires he moves, and now we have neither one around the house.

The seniors, representing a generation of our chapter, are leaving the triangle they have built. Nipper's leadership on the intramural teams will surely be missed, hopefully, he will leave behind the parachute for future space explorers soft landings. Broom, after many weekends in Cocoa, has decided to take the big step. We all wish he and Lynn all the happiness in the world. The magic of Silk will be gone, but he will undoubtedly find an attentive young spectator in Greenwich. With two of our seniors leaves the archaic stereotype of this fraternity — "The Bush Babies." Calzone will have to bum cigarettes off of his future Medical School colleagues. If Doc becomes disenchanted with Medical School he can always bribe leaders of warring into buying arms with Lebanese wine. As for myself, Mr. C., I would like to thank the chapter for giving me the opportunity and challenge of leadership. There were frustrating moments, but there are frustrations in all worthwhile endeavors.

My freshman year someone told me, "Don't let your studies interfere with your education." Academic studies are fundamental to a college education, but working with, for, and through people is the most beneficial that can be learned. Selfless fraternal service teaches this lesson. With the departure of the seniors the triangle will be broken, it is up to the remaining undergraduates to build a new and better one.

Good luck and God bless,

Robert S. Coman, President
1978-79 Zeta-Phi Chapter of
Tau Kappa Epsilon

It was a very hard job to be the editor of the Tomokan because of the many trials and tribulations I went through. During these times, my staff stuck together to reach our common goal of completing the Tomokan. I am very thankful for all their help and I hope that they shared with me in receiving a rewarding experience and accomplishment. Thank you, staff ... I don't know what I would have done without you — (I guess I could have found somebody else to do the same job so don't feel too proud.)

Andrew S. Leeker

Editor

The Tomokan staff wishes to recognize Andy Leeker (without his knowledge or consent) for his outstanding achievements this past year. In addition to being the editor and chief photographer for this edtion of the Tomokan, he was also appointed to the All-State, the All-South, and the All-American teams this year and he played in the Senior Bowl in January. Andy was also drafted to play professional soccer.

The staff extends their congratulations to Andy and wishes him the best of luck.
